JOHNSON MANAGER SCOLDS STATE G. O. P.

Angus McSwain Says Republican Organization is "Boss Ridden."

TRIES TO GET DELEGATES He Asserts Hand of Machine Is Becoming More Apparent Every Day.

Attacking the Republican State organization as "boss ridden," Angus McSwain, Eastern campaign manager for United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson, started yesterday his campaign to elect some of the delegates to the national convention who have been placed in nomination in opposition to the organization selection.

In addition to the fight being made by William M. Bennett, who filed his petition as a candidate for delegate at large in Albany yesterday, and the eleven district fights in New York city, already announced, Mr. McSwain said they intended to put up candidates against Chauncey M. Depew and George C. O'Brien in the Eleventh Congress District.

It was stated yesterday that when Major Gen. Leonard Wood was in the city Saturday it was reported that the Massachusetts delegation should place his name before the Chicago convention.
